

Appendix I

SYNOPSIS OF RED RIDING HOOD

Valerie is a smart girl, brave, beautiful, not spoiled, and a sweet girl. Valerie Matches her mother with Henry and Peter her little best friend and at the same time her love a best friend, to find out about things that can be said to Valerie but Valerie does not want this engagement and does not love Henry, Valerie loves Peter who she tries to convince Peter and says Peter to be patient with all this because Valerie tried to convince her mother, Valerie felt that this match was due to her mother's money and wishes, Valerie had a beautiful, kind, and sweet sister.

Now her sister must die. Valerie was disappointed because her sister had been killed before she entered into a marriage and she felt even more disappointed because her sister would not have told her that her brother had feelings to Henry. When Valerie felt sad, Henry, the handsome and smart boy, tried to cheer Valerie up, but her heart beat faster so that the woodcutter that was wasted was useless. Valerie felt like being sold by her mother, after the death of her cruel sister, the villagers became angry after her sister Valerie died as a result of wolves and villagers, there was no time Valerie began to lose control.

For generations, Wolves have been saved by monthly sacrifice. But now nothing is safe. Finally. The Doggorhorn villagers decided to look for wolves that, when the villagers were going to go looking for wolves Valerie followed the villagers, but in the middle of the trip Valerie thought about it again and stopped and he decided to stop and he visited his grandmother's house to tell about her feelings that call for freedom in choosing a partner, and Valerie tells the story of the wolf but according to Valerie story it's not just a fable but it's reality.

The villagers have arrived at their interesting places is the cave they believe in the human wolf that is there and they find the wolf in the cave and the villagers believe that the wolf is the werewolves they are looking for. Although the victim must be killed is Henry's father, when an expert wolf hunter arrives named Solomon comes, and when the partying comes someone who has contacted Solomon's father, but the villagers do not agree, but when suddenly the party of Solomon's father suddenly come with visitors and create an atmosphere of the village and donggorhorn becomes uncomfortable and feels tense. But the people of Donggorhorn did not ignore Solomon's father and still had a celebration party.

They would succeed in killing the werewolves. When the party took place, Valeri met Peter. Even though his mother was crazy, Peter also knew that he forbade his mother Valeri, but they still met and when Valerie met with Peter each expressed their feelings and shared their desires, every Valerie with Peter he always wanted Peter not Henry Valeri wanted the freedom to choose his life partner.

Peter always invites Valerie to go from the village Peter offers Valerie another life away from home. but Valerie refused and when the party took place, the chaos of a human wolf appeared and created chaos at the time when Valerie ran and continued to run along with her friend named Roxane but when they ran, a werewolf appeared before Valerie and talked to Valerie, Roxane was surprised to respect her and Valerie told Roxane that the wolf was invited to speak but Roxane did not believe because she only listened to werewolf growling not saying such words Valerie, Valerie asked Roxane that she would keep a secret about a secret Valerie who could talk to the wolves .

When Henry met Valerie, Hendry said that he would stop his engagement when Valerie agreed, Hendry said it was because when he saw Valerie with Peter, with Valerie when he was surprised but he agreed to Hendry's request. After the chaos along with werewolves Solomon's father gathered villagers and villagers' informants about what the weaknesses of werewolves and differences in werewolves and humans could be in general and finally the villagers knew that the creatures that lived among them, anyone in the city.

Finally the villagers accused each other. When the conversation between Solomon's villagers and father finished gathering Solomon's followers found someone with the symptoms of an oddity possessed by human wolves. Namely is a Roxane but Roxane did not accept that his brother under Roxane finally offered himself and a sum of money that had not yet been received by Solomon's father Roxane finally offered the last offer which gave the name sought by Solomon. Finally, Mr. Solomon gathered the villagers and Roxane said one name was Valerie but Roxane also asked for forgiveness from Valerie and everything became clear that Valerie was the only one who could hear the creature's voice. Valerie recognized all and said that the wolf asked Valerie to leave. with him and said he had to turn herself in before the blood month was gone or all the people she loved would die. Will the blacksmith marry him or the woodcutter will run away with him or the werewolf will turn him into himself.

Appendix II

Biography Sarah Blakley-Cartwright

Sarah Blakley-Cartwright is an American writer. He graduated cum laude from Barnard College. She was the recipient of the Mary Gordon fiction award in 2008 - 2009 and the Lenore Marshall Barnard award for prose in 2009 - 2010. Cartwright received an offer to write the novel Red Riding Hood, after Catherine Hardwicke, a renowned director offered her to develop the script for the film Red Riding Hood. . This happened after Hardwicke realized that each character in Red Riding Hood has a complexity of each that cannot be described in the film, the novel can contain all of it. Cartwright himself, in the creative process of writing this novel, jumped directly into the film setting and had serious conversations with the film's actors and actresses to explore the characters of this film. Cartwright also indirectly became a partner of David Leslie Johnson, the screenwriter of the film Red Riding Hood. This novel itself became the number 1 best seller by the New York Times magazine.