

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

Joseph with the ways language, communication, and culture. Joseph has a story after The package with the logo stamp of the Egyptian postal service. The package is index card and some note to Joseph in the back of index card got a message his mother think Joseph should want the short note to Joseph and another note is information from Ahmad al-Raqb's friends and then Joseph found the short note with the content his father asked to Mr. Mosseri to send Joseph the short note, Mr. Mosseri was a great friend, Joseph call Mr. Mosseri if Joseph ever find Joseph in Cairo" completed with the Mr. Mosseri, telephone and address Mr. Claude Mosseri as a Best friend from his Father and the he needs to move Joseph and his cousin Aisha to Flight Berkeley to Cairo to looking for Mr. Mosseri to ask everything about his father because of Mr. Mosseri his best friend. it is not easy to looking for Mr. Mosseri. to looking for Mr. Claude Mosseri to found the grave of his father and then process interaction will be easy because when he communication with Cairo people to get more the clue and to giving the feedback when he was interaction.

The communication was important action to the process of the social interaction but in this Novel, the Author described Joseph's character. he was braved to communicate with new people who he didn't know and be able when he made the interaction with another character. The culture of this research. the culture of this research. actually, when Joseph was born he is from Jews family and Muslim family and has connected with the synagogue because of his mother from the family of the Shemarya and his father from the al Raqab such as a watchman to protect the Ibn Ezra Synagogue. The author describes the Joseph connected with synagogue because Joseph can easier to interact with some people who worked in the around of Ibn Ezra Synagogue.

In addition, The Joseph character social interaction Joseph with Mr. Maseori, Joseph with Aisha, Joseph with Security Guard and Joseph with his Mother. Joseph began to look for Mr. Mosseri from Door to Door Joseph is looking for Mr. Mosseri until Joseph finds Mr. Mosseri at Ibn Ezra Synagogue where his father worked as a guard by calling the synagogue number who immediately picked up Mr. Mosseri's phone but Joseph did not use sign language with content to search for Mr. Mosseri and then they met together at Mr. Apartments. Mossry Joseph created the relationship with the good connection it's show up from this research Joseph lived with Mr.mosseri after Joseph found Mr Mosseri until Joseph found his grave's father. And social interaction joseph with the aisha actually aisha is causen of joseph since before his father died who recover his father in the hospital is aisha until interaction aisha escort joseph to found his father grave and joseph giving understand and be good communication every his found the clue until aisha given the advice to joseph from at all. It showed if the joseph character have the got social interaction. Joseph social interaction with the guard.

The author showed if the interaction joseph every meet with the new person joseph never explain more deeply because joseph know if in the Cairo still never accepted about the Jews but he is still tried to interaction with new person and used the politeness content when joseph interaction with new people in the Cairo. While Joseph interaction with his mother will be good. It's showed when the Joseph stay far away from his mother joseph still and every still got new information Joseph always call his mother

In the story author is giving a Process of interaction uses Language, communication, and culture. Social interaction Joseph with another character. it shows how Joseph's interaction in this story and the author giving that knowledge in the joseph about social life. and show if the main character Joseph can be able to interaction anyways and it's all, the author giving the joseph character don't to be arrogant although joseph life in the high social class
