

CHAPTER V CONCLUSION

Based on the results of data analysis and discussion that has been done in the previous chapter, it can be concluded that in the novel Philip Prowse's the Woman Who Disappeared there are Lenny Samuel's personality as Extrovert and characteristic of Lenny Samuel's personality such as humor, optimistic, a worker, Enthusiatic, friendly, creative, adventurous, undisciplined, talkative, storyteller, forgetful, restless, and apologetic that appears in Lenny Samuel's character.

The personality of Lenny Samuel who is runs into the case which come from Helen Garfield. The case finds Helen Garfield's sister. Her name is Elaine Garfield. She disappears when her sister invite to dinner together. Lenny Samuel as a private detective suggestion to report that case to the police. Therefore she sads and start to cry.

From this case Lenny Samuel gets fifty dollar a day. It makes very optimist. He moves to investigation. First to apartment and work place of Elaine Garfield. When he start to investigation to apartment that is very tidy. It doesn't support in this case. There he meets two men who is wants to kill him. Lenny Samuel doesn't know why is kiils. The second to Las Cabanas Club. Lenny Samuel finds Elaine Garfield boyfriend's die. Finally to Elaine Garfield boyfriend's apartment. Lenny Samuel stays at The Police Station for to give answers about Elaine Garfield boy friend's die.

The Police helps Lenny Samuel to clearing the case. When Helen Garfield says true about this case. Helen is Elaine. She hides from two man who is wants to kill her, because Elaine and her boyfriend steals two men's jewel. According to the police, the two men is bandit who is robs jewellery.

Lenny Samuel doesn't get fifty dollar a day, because the jewellery that is use to pay him to take of the police for proof.