

APPENDIX

TABLE 1 : INDEX

No.	Data Code	Data	Representamen	Object
1	I1	“He would have surely thought of Ronald McDonald before Bozo or Clarabell (King, 1968: 15)”	Ronald McDonald	Pennywise the clown
2	I2	“Like the kind of Mickey Mouse always wore (King, 1968: 16)”	Mickey Mouse	Pennywise the clown
3	I3	“Jeepers-creepers come in here again (King, 1968: 493)”	Jeepers Creepers	Pennywise the clown
4	I4	“A small boy in a yellow slicker and red galoshes ran cheerfully along beside the newspaper boat (King, 1986:3)”.	Small boy in a yellow slicker	Georgi
5	I5	“The boy in the yellow slicker on a shed roof (King, 1986: 3)”	Boy in the yellow slicker	Georgi
6	I6	“There was a clown in the storm drain (King, 1986: 15)”	Clown	Pennywise
7	I7	“Therefore, I will introduce myself as the Dancing clown (King, 1968: 16)”	Dancing Clown	Pennywise
8	I8	“Dave saw only a small boy in a yellow rain-slicker, who was screaming and writhing... (King, 1968: 17)”	Small boy in a yellow slicker	Georgi
9	I9	“Couple of creature features walked closer until she was	Creature	Clown between Ben and Eddie (King, 1968: 487)”

10	I10	“Looks like it could be cranberry juice (King, 1968: 498)”	Cranberry Juice	Blood
11	I11	“Kosher! they all laugh again, although none of them really knew what kosher meant (King, 1968: 500)”	Kosher	Halal
12	I12	“The Maytag with the rags in it chugged and sloshed (King, 1968: 496)”	Maytag	Male prostitution
13	I13	“The grass was white and dead at this time of the year (King, 1968: 504)”	White	Snow
14	I14	“It was faint, but still instantly recognizable, calliope music (King, 1968: 509)”	Calliope	Circus Instrument
15	I15	“She could see those boys in her mind’s eye, real, or made- up, paddling around like drenched puppies (King, 1968: 501)”	Drenched puppies	Sweating
16	I16	“The dump had broken up now, and some of them floated like parachute (King, 1968: 502)”	Parachute	High
17	I17	“The Derry blues, they were called (King, 1968: 503)”	Derry blues	Memorial Park
18	I18	“Looking at the branches of elms and maples and oaks against the lead white sky (King, 1968: 504)”	White sky	Rain
19	I19	“Hey Urine! Hey, you are fucking Christ-killer! Where are you going? One of ya fag	Christ killer	Jew Crime friends gonna give you a bee jay? (King, 1968: 506)”

20	I20	“The dead ones, Stanley. We’re the dead ones. We sank, but now we float..... and you’ll float, too (King, 1968: 512)”	The dead ones	The clown
21	I21	“A creature which would eat anything, but which was especially hungry for boy meat (King, 1968: 7)”	Hungry for boy meat	Eat human
22	I22	“..... Bill called from his bedroom: Did you d-d-die out there, Juh Georgi? (King, 1968: 8)”	Die out	Fear
23	I23	“His hand cold sure that at any moment the cellar door would swing... (King, 1968: 8)”	Hand cold	Fear
24	I24	“He leaned back against it with his eyes closed, sweat popped out his arms and forehead (King, 1968: 9)”	Eyes closed, sweat popped	Fear
25	I25	“The face in the storm drain was white, there were tufts of red hair, either side of his bald, and there was a big smile (King, 1968: 15)”	White face, red hair, bald, big smile	Clown
26	I26	“They’ll float, they float Georgi, and when your down with me you will float, too (King, 1968: 17)”	Float	Die
27	I27	“Beverly felt as if her throat had been lined with slate (King, 1968: 476)”	Lined with slate	Sore throat

28	I28	“That arm cried out and then seemed to go to sleep (King, 1968: 477)”	Cried out	In pain
29	I29	“She would have a spreading yellowish-purple bruise there the next day (King, 1968: 478)	Yellowish purple	Cell damage
30	I30	“Let it get him, if it wantshim, let it pull him down, good fucking riddance (King, 1968: 478)”	Good fucking riddance	Goodbye
31	I31	“The bathroom is full of blood, Daddy! Cooking onto the light over the sink, even! (King, 1968: 480)”	Cooking onto the light	Overflowed
32	I32	“All of bunth of cheaterth! (King, 1968: 488)”	Chearterth	Naughty gang
33	I33	“She opened her mouth to say she was okay, not to worry, sticks and stones will break my bones, but names will never hurt me, and that odd question her mother had asked (King, 1968: 489)”	Stick and stones will break bones, but names will never hurt me	Children rhyme
34	I34	“Simple yet nonsensical, full of somehow ominous undertones, murky as old coffee (King, 1968: 489)”	Murky as old coffee	Not relevant
35	I35	“I’ve been scared I’m going looney-tunes (King, 1968: 491)”	Looney tunes	Crazy
36	I36	“What are you talking about, looney tunes? A new voice asked (King, 1968: 491)”	Looney Tunes	Crazy

37	I37	“Jeepers! It looks somebody killed a pig in here (King, 1968: 493)”	Killed a pig	Blood
38	I38	“Beverly had to struggle to keep from bursting into fresh tears (King, 1968: 493)”	Fresh tears	Cry again
39	I39	“What in the world are you talking about? (King, 1968: 497)”	World	Reality
40	I40	“She could feel her eyes widening, her hands and feet growing cold (King, 1968: 497)”	Eyes widening	Afraid
41	I41	“Cruising through the black drains under the city with silver coins for eyes (King, 1968:499)”	Silver coin	Salvation
42	I42	“She could see dust motes dancing in the hot shafts of sunlight which fell through the laundromat’s dirty plate glass window (King, 1968: 499)”	Dancing	Moving
43	I43	“Gently lapping tarn lit by naked magnesium bulbs screwed into reflective tin hoods (King, 1968: 500)”	Naked	Pure
44	I44	“Doing the hero bit, you know (King, 1968: 502)”	Hero	Strength
45	I45	“Over the view and snap Kodaks to show their friends (King, 1968: 502)”	Kodaks	Camera
46	I46	“There was an audible click in his throat (King, 1968: 503)”	Audible click	Swallowed hard
47	I47	“Birdwatcher had spotted what he believes to be a male	Fringillidae richmondena	Cardinal bird cardinal- Fringillidae richmondena- drinking from birdbath in Memorial Park (King, 1968: 503)”

48	I48	“It really wasn’t even a drizzle, it was more like a constant hanging mist (King, 1968: 504)”	Hanging mist	Rain
49	I49	“The air was muted but somehow exciting just the same time (King, 1968: 504)”	Muted	Windy
50	I50	“There was a smell of new growth in the air (King, 1968: 504)”	New growth	Leaves
51	I51	“The air smells green tonight, he thought, and he smiled a little (King, 1968: 504)”	Green	Leaves
52	I52	“He walked quickly because the light would be gone in an hour or even less (King, 1968: 504)”	Light	Sun
53	I53	“He would not allow himself to collect the cardinal even if he knew in his heart, he had really seen it (King, 1968: 504)”	Heart	Deepest
54	I54	“and if those windows are streaked, you won’t need your father to give you blue devil (King, 1968: 486)”	Blue devil	Depression
55	I55	“This was considered a grownups’ park (King, 1968: 500)”	Grownup’ Park	Adult Park
56	I56	“More baths and less bullets, that’s my motto (King, 1968: 505)”.	More bath, less bullet	Financial matter

57	I57	“Stan turned over to the picture of the cardinal one more time, going it over, familiarizing himself with the recognizable points (King, 1968: 505)”	Cardinal	Bird
58	I58	“He uncased his binoculars and put them to his eyes (King, 1968: 505)”	binoculars	Glasses
59	I59	“Then a blue jay came hauling in like a cop breaking up a gaggle of loiterers (King, 1968: 506)”	Cop	Police action
60	I60	“The sparrow returned, then flew off again as a pair of robins cruised into the bathe and to discuss matters of importance to the hollow boned set (King, 1968: 506)”	Hollow boned	Tree
61	I61	“He looked at the picture in the book, studying it with a fierce frown of concentration and picked up the glasses again (King, 1968: 507)”	Frown	High concentration
62	I62	“Just below the gallery level, standpipe’s inner jacket gave on a platform over the water itself (King, 1968: 507)”	Inner jacket	Polyester
63	I63	“That their brain pans were too small (King, 1968: 506)”.	Small	Stupid
64	I64	“The bone-white shingles bulged out over each of those dark windows like brows over eyes (King, 1968:508)”	Shingles	Skin disease
65	I65	“White sky now fading to a dull purple and mist	Dull purple	Cloudy thickening a bit (King, 1968: 508)”

66	I66	“He hit the door with his hand, hit it hard enough to send sparkly tingles of pain all the way up to his elbow (King, 1968: 511)”	Sparkly tingles	Electrocuted
67	I67	“There was nothing cheery about it now. It had changed, it become a dirge (King, 1968: 511)”	Dirge	Sadness
68	I68	“Now it was not popcorn and doughboys and cotton candy he smelled but wet decay, the stench of dead pork which has exploded in a fury of maggots in a place (King, 1968: 511)”	Fury	Numerous
69	I69	“The dead ones, we’re the dead ones. We sank but now we float... and you’ll float too (King, 1968: 512)”	You’ll float	You’ll die
70	I70	“It would reach for him in a moment, and he would feel its cold flesh (King, 1968: 512)”.	Cold flesh	Dead
71	I71	“He could see jeans that had decayed to a purplish black (King, 1968: 513)”	Purplish black	Corpse
72	I72	“His skin was nearly grey as the April evening (King, 1968: 514)”	Grey	Dying