ABSTRACT

The thesis is about Anna Foxx's character development in the novel The Woman in The Window. The objective of the research is to describe the character development of Anna Foxx in A.J Finn's The Woman in The Window, and to examine the causes and effects of Anna Foxx's character development. The analysis uses qualitative descriptive method and the intrinsic approach is applied in this research. The results of this study show the portrayal of Anna Foxx's character development: coping with fear and anxiety, drug abuse and drinking, coping with loneliness and panic attack. The causes Anna Foxx's are friendship with Jane and Ethan Russell and Anna's witnessing Jane Russell's murder. The effects of Anna Foxx's are finally able to live a normal life and make genuine friends.
