Plot Summary

Kahlen

The most popular novel by Kiera Cass is entitled The Siren which contains a story about Kahlen. She is a teenage girl who loses her family because the ship she was traveling with her family capsized, and then she is chosen to become a siren and must serve the oceans for a hundred years. A siren is a beautiful girl who has a voice that is deadly to humans who hear it, to keep her identity a secret, a siren cannot speak except when they are carrying out their duties, but after their service ends they will return to their normal state, namely to become human beings in general. As time goes by, Kahlen meets Akinli, a handsome man she dreams of. Kahlen wants to be with Akinli, but Kahlen can't. Akinli is everything which once dreamed of Kahlen. And though he no could speak with him, they quick form bond which no could denied by both of them and Kahlen no want to.

He felt very sad about his current condition which could not freely make friends with anyone. He knows that falling in love with a human is against the rules of the sea, and when Samudera finds out about Kahlen's feelings, he must leave Akinli forever. But for the first time in her life, Kahlen followed the rules and decided to follow her heart. Kahlen can only associate with his sister who is a fellow siren. But kahlen decided to fight for his love even though it cost his life. Kahlen tries various ways to get away from the ocean by staying away from the ocean but the results are useless, because a siren is very dependent on the ocean. Kahlen still seizes the opportunity to meet Akinli, in the end everything that Kahlen has done is known by the ocean and Kahlen is added to his sentence.
