ABSTRACT

Abstract. Linguistics as the study of language as a system of human communication. This study deals with Illocutionary Acts of The Characters Utterances in Enola Holmes 2 Movie. The objectives of this research to describe the types and find the dominant of illocutionary acts presented by the characters in the movie "Enola Holmes 2". The researcher uses descriptive qualitative research to describe and analyze the selected utterances which are taken from the movie script and categorized the type of illocutionary acts according to the John R. Searle theory. The research found of 59 illocutionary acts appeared in the Enola Holmes 2 movie which is divided into: Representative found 14 data, directive found 22 data, commissive found 6 data, expressive found 16 data and declarative found 1 data. The directive is the most illocutionary acts used by the characters because a lot of instruction regarding the condition of utterance happen in Enola Holmes 2 movie.
