

APPENDIX

AN EXPRESSION OF AN APOLOGY

| Code No | Utterance | Time Frame | Apology Strategies | Explanation |
|--------------|---|-------------|-----------------------------|--|
| EXAP1 SM1 | ANNE MARIE HOAG: "I apologize, Mr. Toomes, but all salvage operations are now under our jurisdiction. Please turn over any and all exotic materials that you've collected, or you will be prosecuted." | 02.21-02.32 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Anne Marie Hoag, director of the Damage Control Department arrived at the rescue site along with her crew. Anne explained that the rescue operation had been taken over but Toomes insisted that he had an agreement with the city. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Anne expressed her apology directly when she felt she had to say it while interrupting the work Toomes and his crew had done. |
| EXAP2 SM1 | ANNE MARIE HOAG: "I'm sorry, sir. There's nothing I can do." | 02.22-02.53 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Toomes pleaded and stated that for this cleanup operation, he even had to buy a truck. He brought a whole new crew, they had families to support. Anne regretfully said that there was nothing she could do to change this situation. This |

| | | | | |
|--------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Anne expresses her apology directly when she feels guilty that there is nothing she can do to change the situation. |
| EXAP3 SM1 | HAPPY HOGAN: “Come on! It’s a freaking merge. (to Tony) I’m sorry. ” | 08.28- 08.30 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Tony said that Peter needed to make a video alibi for May Parker, Peter's aunt. Tony said in the video that Peter was incredible and everyone at Stark was amazed by his performance. Then Happy suddenly shouted in response to the traffic jam, and he apologized. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology as Happy expresses his apologies directly when he feels he has to after interrupting Stark and Peter's conversation. |
| EXAP4 SM1 | SPIDER-MAN: “Hey, hey, buddy. Sorry, no time to play.” Here, go fetch.” | 34.43- 34.47 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, when Spider-Man is chasing the fleeing Brice and Schultz. He passes through a settlement and as he runs through the settlement, a dog bumps into Spider-man, barking and standing on |

| | | | | |
|--------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | its hind legs to lick Spider-man's face. Spider-man picked up a ball with his net and threw it aside for the dog. This utterance is classified as An Expression of an Apology as Spider-Man expresses his apologies directly when he feels it is needed. |
| EXAP5 SM1 | TONY STARK: “Sorry, I’m talking to a teenager. (to Peter) Stay close to the ground. Build up your game helping little people, like that lady that bought you the churro. Can’t you just be a friendly...” | 37.41- 37.44 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Peter was rescued by Iron Man or Tony Stark while drowning in a lake. The Iron Man did not contain Tony Stark but was still connected to Tony's call who was abroad for an event. Tony advised Peter to forget what he saw during the villain chase. But Peter asked what the reason was, Tony only insisted that Peter obey his words. Tony unconsciously shouted. Tony felt that he had disturbed the surrounding comfort and made an apology strategy. This utterance is classified as an Expression of Apology because Stark expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty to the servants around him for speaking too loudly |

| | | | | |
|--------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | on the phone. |
| EXAP6 SM1 | NED LEEDS: “Sorry, Peter. I guess we’re still losers. I’ll see you tomorrow.” | 39.01- 39.03 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Ned suddenly called Peter from Liz’s house where they and their school friends were gathered. Ned said that Peter didn’t seem to need to come back and told Peter to listen to something. There was Flash and his friends chanting “Penis” followed by “Parker”. Ned then apologized and said that they were still losers. This utterance is classified as An Expression of an Apology as Ned expresses his apologies directly when he feels it is needed. |
| EXAP7 SM1 | MASON: “Oh, sorry. You left it out. You know I’m a curious person by nature.” | 40.00- 40.03 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Mason, who was Toomes’ worker, said that Toomes’ wife kept sending messages. Toomes who heard it felt uncomfortable with his workers who were too presumptuous to look at his cell phone. Mason apologized while issuing a defense that it was because |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | Toomes left his phone and he was a naturally curious person. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Mason expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for presumptuously opening Toomes' cell phone. |
| EXAP8 SM1 | ADRIAN TOOMES: "Excuse me?" | 41.32- 41.33 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Toomes fired Brice and Brice took it for granted but he said that Toomes wouldn't be able to do without him, with all that he knew. Brice said that arrogantly and started walking away. Toomes who heard it was astonished, as if surprised by the words that came out of Brice's mouth. This utterance is classified as An Expression of an Apology as Toomes expresses his apologies directly when he feels it is needed. |
| EXAP9 SM1 | MJ: "Excuse me, can we go already?" 'Cause I was hoping to get in some light protesting in front of one of the embassies before dinner, so." | 46.19- 46.23 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, While leaving for the Decathlon by bus, MJ interrupted her friends' conversation because she felt it was time-consuming. She wanted to leave immediately as |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | she hoped to have a light protest in front of one of the embassies before dinner. This utterance is classified as An Expression of an Apology as MJ expresses her apologies directly when she feels it is needed. |
| EXAP10 SM1 | SPIDER-MAN: “What? Uh... Don’t worry, ma’am. Everything’s gonna be okay. Excuse me, excuse me . Oh, my god, that’s tall.” | 01.00.24- 01.00.26 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Spider-Man rushes to the Washington Monument because of an explosion on the tip of the monument. MJ, who happened to be near Spider-Man, told him that his friends were up there. Spider-Man calmed MJ by saying that everything would be fine. He quickly interrupted among the crowd of people. This utterance is classified as An Expression of an Apology as Spider-Man expresses his apologies directly when he feels it is needed. |
| EXAP11 SM1 | NED LEEDS: “ Sorry, sir. So sorry. ” | 01.04.12- 01.04.13 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Spider-Man is trying to save his friends who are in the Washington Monument elevator. When Spider-Man managed to hold the elevator that was about |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | to fall, Ned suddenly jumped and made the entire elevator sway, and Spider-Man was reminded that Ned had to stop moving. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Ned expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty for spontaneously shaking his body when they were in a precarious situation in the elevator. |
| EXAP12 SM1 | PETER PARKER: “I, I’m sorry.” | 01.21.29- 01.21.30 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Tony Stark tried to tell Peter who insisted that he was only trying to save people. But Tony Stark thinks Peter is careless and acting too much on his own. Tony doesn't want Peter to put himself in danger. Peter finally understands Tony's concern and understands his mistake. This utterance is classified as An Expression of an Apology as Peter expresses his apologies directly when he feels it is needed. |
| EXAP13 SM1 | PETER PARKER: “I’m sorry I made you worry.” | 01.23.12- 01.23.14 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Peter was honest about losing his Stark |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | internship after May was concerned about why he wasn't answering her many calls. Peter apologized for worrying May. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for making his aunt May worry about him. |
| EXAP14 SM1 | PETER PARKER: “Hey, look, I, uh... I just wanted to apologize about the whole Decathlon thing. I really-” | 01.24.58- 01.25.03 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Peter met Liz, and she apologized for the incident at the Decathlon where Peter didn't show up for the race. Liz and her friends are looking for Peter. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty about the incident at the Decathlon. |
| EXAP15 SM1 | PETER PARKER: “Gotta go. I'm, I'm sorry. You don't deserve this.” | 01.35.01- 01.35.08 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Peter said that he had to go to Liz from the homecoming party, and he also said that Liz didn't deserve it. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP16 SM1 | FLASH: "I'm sorry about dinner, but I know when branzino's fresh, and that was not fresh, okay? So..." | 01.36.39– 01.36.45 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Flash messed up the dinner with his date, he apologized but also made the excuse that the Branzino wasn't fresh. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Flash expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP17 SM1 | ADRIAN TOOMES: "I'm sorry, Peter." | 01.41.37– 01.41.38 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Toomes apologized to Peter during a conversation. Peter realized that Toomes' wing suit was not attacking him but cutting down the pillars. The pillars collapsed and burying him. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Toomes expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP18 SM1 | PETER PARKER: "Liz, look. I'm so sorry." | 01.55.10– 01.55.12 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, When Liz said goodbye to her friends at school, Peter approached her to apologize. Peter feels |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | guilty about what happened to Liz that she had to move out of school. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty about what he did to Liz's father. |
| EXAP19 SM1 | TONY STARK: "Sorry I took your suit. I mean, you had it coming. Actually, it turns out it was the perfect sort of tough-love moment that you needed, right? To urge you on, right? Wouldn't you think? Don't you think?" | 01.58.51- 01.59.00 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Peter meets Stark in his office. Stark apologizes for taking back Peter's Spider-Man suit that he gave him. Stark intended to encourage Peter to keep his spirits up and not give up on being a superhero. This utterance is classified as an Expression of Apology because Stark expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for taking Peter's Spider-Man suit that he created. |
| EXAP20 SM2 | HAPPY HOGAN: "Hey, sorry I'm late." | 07.02- 07.03 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, backstage at a homeless support event for people who have been in accidents, May Parker and Peter Parker talk about how great the event is and how they both feel nervous. Suddenly, someone walked into the room |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | which made May and Peter instantly silent. It turned out that the person was Happy Hogan. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Happy expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for coming late to the event. |
| EXAP21 SM2 | MAY PARKER: “So sorry. I thought you could sense that with your Peter-tingle.” | 09.55- 10.01 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, during the Homeless Event, Peter was in his apartment room, looking at the Spider-Man costume hanging in his closet. Suddenly May came through the door and asked if Peter was hungry and threw him a banana. However, it unexpectedly hit Peter in the face. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because May expresses her apology directly when she feels sorry for accidentally hitting Peter with the banana she threw. |
| EXAP22 SM2 | PASSENGER #2: “Oh, sorry, that’s mine.” | 10.45- 10.47 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, while Peter and his class were on the plane heading to Venice, one of the passengers apologized to the other |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | passengers. This was because his seat was occupied by another passenger. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Passenger expresses her apology directly when she feels guilty for suddenly talking about something excitedly without seeing the context of the conversation. |
| EXAP23 SM2 | ROGER HARRINGTON: “I'll tell you from experience, perfume allergies are no joke. I can feel hives breaking out already. MJ, stand up. Ned, take MJ's spot. MJ, you take my spot. Peter, let's get you out of there. Sorry. Zach and Sebastian, you take Ned and Peter's seats. That's all right. Ned, thanks for bringing this to my attention. Your safety is my responsibility. And Mr. Dell's, but he's... [He looks at Dell, who is sleeping very comfortably] I got it for now. Let's go, | 12.30- 12.56 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, when Mr. Harrington found out that Peter had an allergy to perfume. Mr. Harrington realizes how dangerous the allergy is if not dealt with quickly, and he apologizes to Zach and Sebastian that they have to move and take Peter and Ned's place so that Peter can move to a safer place. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Mr. Harrington expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for suddenly talking about something excitedly without seeing the context of the conversation. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | Peter! Let's go!" | | | |
| EXAP24 SM2 | PETER PARKER: "Sorry. Sorry. I'm here. Mr. Harrington." | 16.14- 16.19 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, during the baggage check by the airport officials, Peter's luggage had to be checked because the sniffer dogs smelled something inside. Because of this, Peter fell behind the group and tried to catch up with the group while running a little past people. Peter, who was in a hurry, quickly apologized as he passed the people. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty running around in a hurry among the hustle and bustle of people at the airport. |
| EXAP25 SM2 | SPIDER-MAN: "Excuse me, sir! I- I can help. Let me help. I'm really strong, and I'm sticky!" | 22.22- 22.27 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, When Mysterio fought the elemental, Spider-Man offered to help him. Spider-Man apologized for momentarily |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | interrupting their battle, but his only intention was to help Mysterio. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP26 SM2 | HAPPY HOGAN: “Sorry, I’m working hard here. I gotta do a- a leaflet drop.” | 26.12- 26.16 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter and May made a cell phone call and found out that Happy was around. Happy greeted Peter through May's cell phone and apologized because he was busy doing work in May's office. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Happy expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP27 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “That was my teacher. Sorry about that. You were saying?” | 29.36- 29.39 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter and Nick Fury make a call through the earpiece. But in the middle of the call, Mr. Harrington engages Peter in conversation. Peter apologized for the interruption while the call was still being made. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for interrupting the conversation with Nick Fury. |
| EXAP28 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “Thanks. [Then he remembers Mysterio's words] I'm sorry. Your world?” | 31.24- 31.28 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Mysterio told her that someone like Peter could be very helpful and useful in her world. Peter was confused about the word "my world" that Mysterio used in his words. He apologized for not fully understanding Mysterio's words. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for not understanding Mysterio's words. |
| EXAP29 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “Sorry, you're saying there's a multiverse?” I thought that was theoretical. That changes how we understand the initial singularity. [Fury and Hill turn to him, confused] We're talking about an eternal inflation | 31.38- 31.54 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter was amazed and very interested in the multiverse. He apologized twice. The first apology was because he wanted to make sure that what he heard was true and that there was a multiverse. The second apology was because he was too excited, Nick and Maria |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|------------------|------------------------------------|---|
| | system. How does that even work with all the quantum...? It's insane. [He notices Nick and Maria looking at him with exasperation] Sorry. It's really cool. | | | looked at him with annoyance. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels sorry for talking too much and exasperating Nick and Maria. |
| EXAP30 SM2 | PETER PARKER: "I'm sorry." | 33.01- 33.022 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Beck said that the strongest element of all had come to Earth. The element that destroyed the earth It's what took his family. Peter notices the wedding ring on Beck's ring finger. He apologizes as he listens to Beck's story. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt saddened by Beck losing his family. |
| EXAP31 SM2 | PETER PARKER: "I'm sorry, did you say Prague?" [He glances at Hill, uncertain whether he heard her right or not] Ueh... Mr. Fury, this all seems like bigtime, you know, huge superhero kind of stuff. And... I | 33.11- 33.22 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Nick Fury says that Peter will be on a mission to kill Earth-threatening elements, and that mission is in Prague. Peter apologized to make sure that what he heard was not wrong and that he had to go to Prague. This utterance is |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | mean, I'm just a friendly neighborhood Spider-Man, sir.” | | | classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to confirm Nick Fury's words. |
| EXAP32 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “I’m sorry, what?” | 33.54- 33.55 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter really wants to help Nick and Beck, but if his aunt finds out he left his class trip, that's going to be a problem. Especially if the whole world finds out who he is. Nick understood, and Peter was confused by Nick's response. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to ascertain Nick Fury's response. |
| EXAP33 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “Excuse me?” | 38.15- 38.16 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Nick Fury's colleague, Maria Hill, suddenly came to Peter and asked him to take off his clothes just like that. Peter was confused and tried to apologize for not understanding the situation. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP34 SM2 | BRAD DAVIS: “ Sorry. I thought this was the bathroom.” | 38.47- 38.50 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Brad accidentally caught Peter alone with Maria Hill in a room. Brad, who realized his mistake, apologized for thinking the room was a bathroom. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Brad expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty for presumptuously opening the room where Peter and Maria Hill were. |
| EXAP35 SM2 | BRAD DAVIS: “ I’m sorry, man. I have to. She deserves the truth.” | 39.15- 39.18 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Brad deliberately took a picture when Peter and Maria Hill were alone in a room, with Peter opening his pants. Brad was going to show the photo to MJ. Peter asked Brad not to do it, but Brad apologized and said MJ had the right to know the truth. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Brad expressed his apology directly when he felt he |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | had to say it to Peter. |
| EXAP36 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “Please give me... [He quickly looks to the side and accidentally knocks Flash out] I'm so sorry. ” | 40.32- 40.37 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Edith's goggles are picked up by Flash, and Flash tries to put them on. Peter asks for them back, but Flash doesn't give them to him. While trying to retrieve the glasses, Peter accidentally hits Flash, causing him to lose the glasses. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty for making Flash faint. |
| EXAP37 SM2 | NED LEEDS: “Look, I am so sorry if I seem like I'm preoccupied with my relationship. I'm still your guy in the chair.” | 42.48- 42.55 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter picked up the cell phone call from Nick Fury. Ned, who saw him, immediately approached and apologized to Peter. Ned felt he was too focused on his girlfriend and didn't pay attention to Peter's superhero business. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Ned expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for neglecting Peter. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| EXAP38 SM2 | PETER PARKER: "Excusi... Sorry, that's Italian." | 46.42- 46.44 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, As Peter passed some buildings, he said, Excuse me, but used Italian. Peter apologized for using the wrong language in Prague. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for using the wrong language. |
| EXAP39 SM2 | MJ: "...put them in a basket, and they would drown in the water. Sorry. " | 01.07.08- 01.07.14 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter and MJ took a walk around the Charles Bridge. MJ said that the bridge used to be used to execute people, they would be put in a basket and drowned. After saying this, MJ apologized for suddenly being too excited to talk about the history of the bridge they passed. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because MJ expresses her apology directly when she feels guilty for suddenly talking about something excitedly without seeing the context of the conversation. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| EXAP40 SM2 | WILLIAM GINTER RIVA: "Sorry." | 01.10.46- 01.10.48 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Beck is setting up his illusions while fighting elements to make them look more real and believable. Riva, one of his crew members, apologized when Beck was dissatisfied with the performance or edits of his illusions. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Riva expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP41 SM2 | SPIDER-MAN: "Excuse me. Do you know where?..." | 01.16.08- 01.16.09 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Spider-Man had just arrived in Berlin on a train. He exited the station wearing his black costume, known by his new name, Night Monkey. He asked one of the people where Nick Fury was. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |

| | | | | |
|-----------------------|--|-------------------------------|------------------------------------|---|
| EXAP42 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “I know I made a mistake, and I’m sorry, but he is not who you think he is. Beck is a liar. Mysterio, the Elementals, it’s all fake. He has some sort of illusion tech. That’s how he tricked you and tricked me into giving him EDITH. | 01.17.98- 01.17.18 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter meets Nick Furry. He apologized first to Nick Furry and explained what happened. Peter understands his mistake of trusting Beck too much and handing over EDITH. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for his actions of trusting Beck and handing over EDITH to Beck. |
| EXAP43 SM2 | QUENTIN BECK: “It’s easy to fool people when they’re already fooling themselves. But for what it’s worth, Peter, I really am sorry.” | 01.21.46- 01.21.59 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, During Peter’s argument with Beck, Beck said it’s very easy to fool others when they’ve already fooled themselves. After that, Beck apologized to Peter. The next thing was that he pushed Peter towards a speeding train. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Beck expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to say it to Peter before pushing him. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| EXAP44 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “Excuse me, sir?” | 01.24.03- 01.24.04 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter suddenly woke up in the Netherlands. He immediately asked the nearest Dutchman for help to borrow a cell phone and contact reinforcements. He asked for a minute from the Dutchman who was selling nearby. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt he had to. |
| EXAP45 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “I’m sorry, Happy. I’m sorry. I shouldn’t shout. I just really miss him.” | 01.26.20- 01.26.27 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter accidentally snapped at Happy because Happy kept telling him to calm down. Peter couldn’t calm down with the fact that he was betrayed by the person he trusted, Beck. Mr. Stark had entrusted EDITH to him, but instead, he gave it to the one who would destroy the entire world. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for yelling at Happy, he says that he actually misses Mr. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | Stark. |
| EXAP46 SM2 | MJ: "I'm sorry, okay?!" I'm obsessed with telling the truth even if it hurts people's feelings!" | 01.44.31- 01.44.36 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, When the precarious situation is attacked by drones, Flash arrogantly says that he saved them all with his broadcast video, but MJ dismisses it by saying that if Flash saved them all, why would they die now. Ned and Betty both confronted MJ. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because MJ expresses her apology directly when she feels guilty, saying such things at a crucial time. |
| EXAP47 SM2 | PETER PARKER: "No. No. Oh, MJ, I'm so sorry." I had this plan, this stupid plan." | 01.49.54- 01.50.00 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, When he finds out that the black Dahlia necklace he was going to give to MJ was broken, Peter apologizes to MJ. He had planned everything, but it just ended up being a stupid plan. This utterance is |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|-----------------------------|--|
| | | | | classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty because the necklace that will be given to MJ has been broken. |
| EXAP48 SM2 | PETER PARKER: "Yeah. Sorry it's broken." | 01.50.38- 01.50.39 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, MJ gave him a black Dahlia necklace that she got from a man she thought was working with Peter. Peter felt sad because the black Dahlia necklace was going to be given to MJ but it turned out to be broken. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry that the necklace he was going to give to MJ was broken. |
| EXAP49 SM2 | SPIDER-MAN: "Sorry!" | 01.54.31- 01.54.32 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, While Spider-Man was swinging through the city buildings, he accidentally stepped on the walls of an office building and made all the employees see him. Spider-Man apologized for distracting their attention and interrupting their work |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | time. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for disturbing the focus of the office employees he passed by. |
| EXAP50 SM2 | SPIDER-MAN: "Hey. Sorry I'm late." | 01.55.11- 01.55.12 | An Expression of an Apology | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Spider-Man or Peter has a date with MJ. Spider-Man arrives after swinging through the city. He apologizes to MJ for arriving late. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty about arriving late on his date with MJ. |
| EXAP51 SM3 | SPIDER-MAN: "MJ, I'm so sorry. but I can't see anything with your hand in my—" | 02.51- 02.53 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, while on the streets of NYC or the Queensborough bridge, just after Spider-man swings with MJ. MJ tightly holds Spider-Man or Peter. MJ's hand subconsciously covered part of Spider-Man's mask. Spider-man immediately says that he can't see anything with MJ's |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | hand on his mask. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expresses his apology directly when he feels the need to say it when MJ accidentally disturbs his vision. |
| EXAP52 SM3 | MJ: (moving it away) “I’m sorry, I’m sorry!” | 02.53- 02.54 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, MJ accidentally covered part of Spider-Man’s mask, Spider-Man immediately said that he could not see clearly because of MJ’s hand covering his vision. MJ apologized and immediately put her hands aside. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because MJ expresses her apology directly when she feels guilty about covering up Spider-Man’s vision. |
| EXAP53 SM3 | SPIDER-MAN: “Ah, I’m so sorry! Are you okay?” | 03.13- 03.14 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, after the tragedy of MJ accidentally covering Spider-Man’s mask, MJ and Spider-Man finally landed on the Queensborough Bridge. Spider-Man’s phone suddenly rings, and he answers it, it turns out it’s Ned. Ned shouted, Spider-Man also |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | shouted, and MJ, who saw him, was confused and shouted to warn them. Spider-Man was confused, but after that, he left MJ, who was standing precariously on the bridge. Spider-Man returns and apologizes for leaving MJ. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty for leaving MJ standing on the bridge in fear. |
| EXAP54 SM3 | SPIDER-MAN: "I'm so sorry!" | 03.58- 03.59 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, on the way to his apartment, Spider-Man passed through a train tunnel to avoid the many people who saw him. MJ had to keep swinging with Spider-Man to avoid being mobbed. Peter apologized for knowing that MJ was uncomfortable swinging around. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for making MJ uncomfortable. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| EXAP55 SM3 | SPIDER-MAN: "I'm sorry!" | 04.12- 04.13 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Spider-Man opened the window of his apartment room from the outside, and immediately he directed MJ to enter through the window. Spider-Man apologized that MJ had to struggle to enter through the window of his apartment room. This speech is classified as an An Expression of an Apology because Spider-Man expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for causing MJ trouble. |
| EXAP56 SM3 | HAPPY HOGAN: "I'm so sorry. I just feel so dumb. I didn't realize you were miserable." | 04.15- 04.18 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Happy and May were talking in front of the door. It was about their relationship. Happy said that he was very sorry and felt very stupid. Happy also said that he didn't realize that May was miserable. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Happy expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for not being able to understand May. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| EXAP57 SM3 | MJ: "I'm sorry..." | 04.45- 04.46 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Happy caught Peter and MJ together in Peter's apartment room, with Peter almost naked. MJ, who saw the situation, immediately apologized. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because MJ expressed her apology directly when she felt the need to wear it when she was caught with Peter almost naked. |
| EXAP58 SM3 | SPECIAL AGENT CLEARLY: "So sorry to keep you waiting. (to another cop) Can we get Ned a snack, please? He's been waiting. (as he leaves) Dude, I'm so sorry about that." | 07.59- 08.06 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Agent Clearly was tasked with interrogating Peter and all of his associates concerned with the matter, including Ned. Agent Clearly apologized to Ned for the long wait, and asked another police officer to bring Ned a snack. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Agent Clearly expresses his apology directly when he feels the need to use it while making Ned wait. |
| EXAP59 SM3 | MAY PARKER: "Excuse me?" | 09.19- 09.20 | An Expression of an | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, May is interrogated by |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | Apology | Agent Clearly. May, who is used to responding to interrogations because of her naughty teenage years, skillfully avoids the interrogator's trick questions. Agent Clearly said that May needed a lawyer. He also said that May is dangerous for children like Peter. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because May expressed her apology directly when she felt the need to use it while being confused by what she heard from Agent Clearly. |
| EXAP60 SM3 | MR. HARRINGTON: “My ex-wife, for example, she's been spending a lot of time online. And, y'know, th-- The Internet is a wild place that really beckons people like her who are a-- A little lost. And kind of have forgotten where they came from, and who they are, and... And that they love someone very much. Sometimes you just forget these things | 17.52- 18.16 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Mr. Harrington was interviewed by the school journalist about his thoughts on Peter as Spider-Man. However, Mr. Harrington's conversation went too far, when he realized it, he apologized and asked again what the question was about Peter as Spider-Man. This speech is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for deviating |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|-----------------------------|--|
| | and you end up in a subreddit... believing Mysterio... Sorry, what was your question?" | | | from the question given to him. |
| AP61 SM3 | FLASH THOMPSON: (humbled) “Uh, yeah... (looking at his watch) I better get going. There's a mixer for new admissions... and... (turns around, leaves) Sorry, guys. ” | 24.01- 24.08 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Flash was the only one admitted to the university among Peter, Ned, and MJ. He informed the others that he had been admitted and had to attend the admission ceremony. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty about leaving his friends for the university that accepted him. |
| EXAP62 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “Right. Umm... Woah. (slips, almost falls) I'm really sorry to bother you, sir, but... ” | 26.31- 26.34 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter went to Strange to ask him for help. While at Strange's residence, they were busy cleaning around the house. Peter apologized for disturbing them. This |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | speech is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for bothering Strange. |
| EXAP63 SM3 | STEPHEN STRANGE: “I am so sorry, but... even if I wanted to... I don't have the Time Stone anymore.” | 27.24- 27.31 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter asks Strange for help, but Strange can't help, even if he wants to. Strange apologized for not being able to help because he no longer had a time stone. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Strange expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for not being able to help Peter. |
| EXAP64 SM3 | PETER PARKER: (beat) “That's right. (after a brief pause) ‘m really sorry if I... wasted your time.’ ” | 27.33- 27.41 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, after hearing Strange's explanation for not being able to help him, Peter apologizes for wasting Strange's time. It is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for wasting Strange's time. |
| EXAP65 SM3 | PETER PARKER: (snickering) “Right. Sorry.” | 29.14- 29.16 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Strange has the idea that instead of turning |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | back time, he can make people forget certain events or people. He came up with the idea to solve Peter's problem. He took Peter to the Sanctum building. Peter felt helped, said that he appreciated Strange's help, and called Strange "Sir." Strange felt uncomfortable and admonished Peter not to call him that. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for making Strange feel uncomfortable. |
| EXAP66 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "Wait, excuse me?" | 29.28- 29.29 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Strange began his spell by drawing strange mystical things in the air by drawing some rune energy from the mandala shield in his left hand. A slow, rhythmic arrangement of Strange's theme begins to play in the background. Peter was confused and apologized as he felt he did not understand what Strange was doing. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty for not understanding what Dr. Strange was doing. |
| EXAP67 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “Stephen, listen, I am so sorry... ” | 31.29- 31.30 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Strange is angry that Peter has changed Strange's spells repeatedly with his various requests. He had made a mess of the spell and it would be dangerous for the world. Peter apologized for his mistake. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels sorry for changing Dr. Strange's spell repeatedly. |
| EXAP68 SM3 | PETER PARKER: (beat) “Sorry, sir.” | 31.34- 31.35 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter calls Strange "Stephen" without the word "Sir" as Strange suggested at the beginning. But because Peter had made a fatal mistake, Strange ordered Peter to call him "Sir" again. Peter apologized again for his mistake. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for calling Strange without the word "Sir". |
| EXAP69 SM3 | DR.STRANGE: “You know, after everything we've been through together, somehow I always forget... You're just a kid. Look, Parker, the problem, it's not Mysterio. It's you. Trying to live two different lives. And the longer you do that, the more dangerous it becomes, believe me. I'm so sorry about you and your friends not getting into college, but if they rejected you, and... you tried to convince them to reconsider, there is nothing else you can do.” | 31.37- 32.03 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Strange advised Peter that he could not change the past. Strange also apologized for Peter and his friends not being accepted at the university. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Dr. Strange expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry that Peter and his friends were not accepted into the university. |
| EXAP70 SM3 | DR.STRANGE: (anger rises) “ I'm sorry, but are you telling me, that you didn't even think to plead your case with them first, before you asked me to brainwash the entire world?” | 32.18- 32.29 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter is confused about the fact that he could contact the university regarding the rejection of him and his friends. Strange was confused and apologized for not fully understanding what Peter meant. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-------------|-----------------------------|--|
| | | | | Strange thought Peter had already objected and contacted the university for leniency. Peter was too reckless because without making any effort, he asked Strange to brainwash the entire world. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Dr. Strange expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty for assuming that Peter had first tried to contact the university. |
| EXAP71 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “Yeah, I know. I'm sorry. I just, I really needed to talk to you, I know you're on your way to the airport... MJ Watson and Ned Leeds are the two smartest people I've ever met in my entire life, and I'm the dumbest person, because.... I let them help me, but if I didn't let them help me, then millions of people would've died, so please... don't let MIT be dumb like me.” | 34.23-34.37 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter met the MIT Administrator of the university that Peter and his friends were going to. Peter apologized for disturbing the MIT Administrator's journey to the airport. He explains that MJ and Ned should be accepted into the university. Peter also explained that both of them helped him save the world. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for interrupting |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | the MIT Administrator on his way to the airport. |
| EXAP72 SM3 | PETER PARKER: (to Octavius) "I-I'm sorry." | 42.54- 42.55 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter and Strange are in the Sanctum building with villains from various universes who have been locked up. Peter told Strange that he and his friends had been accepted into MIT University, but Peter was afraid of people seeing him with the monsters. The word "monsters" that Peter said offended Dr. Octavius. Peter apologized to Dr. Octavius for his words. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for calling the villains "monsters". |
| EXAP73 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "I'm so sorry for dragging you in this, you just gotta help me find these guys..." | 43.54- 43.58 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter invites Ned and MJ to the Sanctum building. Peter apologizes for dragging Ned and MJ into his problems, but Peter needs their help. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | Apology because Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for bringing his friends into his problems. |
| EXAP74 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "I'm sorry, what was your name again?" | 46.02- 46.03 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, while in the villain's cell, MJ comes up with a plan that they will call the others to get zapped, and then Stephen Strange will send them back. Ned also enthusiastically carries a weapon and is ready to arrest several multiverse men. Then suddenly, Dr. Otto asks Peter who the two people with him are. Peter also introduced MJ and Ned. Ned greets Dr. Otto. Peter was confused and asked what the name of the person who was talking to him was. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for forgetting who Dr. Octavius is. |
| EXAP75 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "Sorry." | 52.08- 52.09 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Flint Marko helped Peter arrest Max Dillon. Flint Marko realized that the Peter in front of |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | him was a different Peter. Peter thanked Flint for his help, and he tried to high-five Sandman, but Flint's hand slipped off during the collision. Peter realizes that he can't high-five Flint because Flint is made of sand. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when Peter feels sorry and guilty for his actions towards Flint. |
| EXAP76 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "Sorry. Um... Dr. Osborn, these are my friends, Ned and MJ." | 59.46- 59.49 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter introduces Mr. Osborn to Ned and MJ, but Peter doesn't include the word "doctor" in Mr. Osborn's name. Mr. Osborn reprimands Peter, Peter apologizes and says his name to Dr. Osborn. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty, mentioning Mr. Osborn's name without the title Dr. Osborn. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| EXAP77 SM3 | STEPHEN STRANGE: (In a calm yet somewhat fanatical tone) “In the grand calculus of the multiverse, their sacrifice means infinitely more than their lives. (regretful) I’m sorry, kid. If they die, they die.” | 01.02.33- 01.02.51 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter and Strange argue about returning the villains to their respective universes, they will die defeated by Spider-Man in their respective universes. Strange explains that in the grand calculus of the universe, their sacrifices mean more than their lives. Strange apologized and said that if they die, they die. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Strange expresses his apology directly when he feels sorry by saying the fact that criminals will die as they are destined to. |
| EXAP78 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “I’m sorry, sir, but...” | 01.07.21- 01.07.24 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Dr. Strange opened the mirror dimension so that Peter could not escape with the Machina de Kadavus box. Peter, who is good at math, managed to calculate the possibilities and strategize. Peter makes Strange trapped in his own Archimedean spiral. Peter also took the Sling Ring from |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | Strange's hand by force. Peter apologized for doing so and returned to the Sanctum building through the portal using the Sling Ring. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels sorry for having to trap and take the Sling Ring from Strange. |
| EXAP79 SM3 | FLINT MARKO: "Oh, sorry." | 01.11.16- 01.11.17 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, while at Happy's apartment, Sandman sat on the sofa and immediately left a mess on it. He apologized to Peter for leaving dirt on the sofa from his sand body. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Flint expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for leaving dirt on the sofa of Happy's apartment. |
| EXAP80 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "Sorry." | 01.14.50- 01.14.51 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter successfully created a neural inhibitor chip for Dr. Octavius. He quickly met the others and was going to attach it to Dr. Octavius. Peter asked May to control the |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| | | | | holographic device to direct Dr. Octavius to the mezzanine position. But Peter accidentally threw it to May too quickly, so May was confused about how to catch the holographic device. Peter apologized because he was too excited and in a hurry. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels sorry for throwing the item too fast to May so that May could barely catch it. |
| EXAP81 SM3 | PETER PARKER: (shaking, crying) "I'm sorry. I'm so sorry." | 01.29.27- 01.29.28 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, May died during the incident at Happy's apartment due to the villains' feud with Peter. Peter was devastated and repeatedly apologized in front of the dead May. Peter realized that it was his fault that May had to die. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels sorry and guilty for May's death caused by him. |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| EXAP82 SM3 | WEBB PETER: "Oh. Sorry, Lola." | 01.36.16- 01.36.17 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Webb Peter and Raimi Peter accidentally visited Ned's grandmother's house because Ned opened a portal using Dr. Strange's Sling Ring to find Peter. Both of Peter's from another universe accidentally littered Ned's grandmother's house with net shots. Ned's grandmother said that they had to clean it up, and Webb Peter apologized for dirtying Ned's grandmother's house. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Webb Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for making Ned's grandmother's house dirty with spider webs. |
| EXAP83 SM3 | RAIMI PETER: (holding up his hand) "Sorry... about May." | 01.38.26- 01.38.30 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter met with Raimi Peter and Webb Peter. Raimi Peter apologized for Peter's loss of May, his aunt. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Raimi Peter expressed his apology directly when |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | he felt sorry that Peter had lost his aunt May. |
| EXAP84 SM3 | WEBB PETER: “Yeah. Sorry. I got some understanding of...” | 01.38.34- 01.38.40 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter met with Raimi Peter and Webb Peter. Webb Peter apologized for Peter's loss regarding May, his aunt. He also said that he understood Peter's feelings. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Webb Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry that Peter had lost his aunt May. |
| EXAP85 SM3 | MCU PETER: “Please, don't. You don't belong here. Either of you, so I'm sending you home. Those other guys are from your worlds, right? So you deal with it. If they die, if you kill them... That's on you. It's not my problem. I don't care anymore. I'm done. I'm really sorry that I dragged you into this. But you have to go home now. Good luck.” | 01.39.02- 01.39.40 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, When Peter meets Raimi Peter and Webb Peter, Peter will not make his aunt May's death a waste. Peter will send them home, and they will deal with the villains in their respective universes. All of this will be their own business. Peter is truly sorry for dragging the two of them into this. They should return to their universe immediately. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter |

| | | | | |
|---------------|---|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| | | | | expressed his apology directly when he felt sorry for dragging Raimi Peter and Webb Peter into this. |
| EXAP86 SM3 | MCU PETER/RAIMI PETER/WEBB PETER: (in unison) “Yeah? [pointing towards each other] Oh, sorry. You mean... ” | 01.45.34- 01.45.38 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, While the three of Peter were working on something for their plan, Ned called out to Peter. But the three of them turned around and responded to Ned. They apologized simultaneously and asked who Ned was referring to. Which Peter did Ned call. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because MCU Peter/Webb Peter/Raimi Peter expressed his apology directly when he was confused by Ned's call. |
| EXAP87 SM3 | WEBB PETER: “Sorry!” (webs somewhere else) | 01.54.38- 01.54.39 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Webb Peter and Electro are swinging in the air, while Lizard and Raimi Peter are balancing on the crane. MCU Peter frees his right hand and tries to web the crane, but it is cut short by a passing Webb Peter, who then starts falling. Trying to stop his fall, Webb Peter tries to web the crane but ends up |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|--------------------------------------|---|
| | | | | hitting Raimi Peter. Webb Peter apologized for his web shot hitting Raimi Peter. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Webb Peter expressed his apology directly when he felt guilty that his net shot hit Raimi Peter and caused him to fall. |
| EXAP88 SM3 | WEBB PETER: “Oh, man. I’m sorry.” | 02.02.34- 02.02.36 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, as Max Dillon returns to being an ordinary man with no powers, Peter approaches him and asks how he is. Max replied that he was fine and went back to being a nobody. He was jealous of Peter being Spider-Man from Queens, having a suit, and helping people. He also thought that Peter was black. Peter apologized for that. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for Max, who feels he is nothing compared to Peter’s existence and what he has. |

| | | | | |
|-----------------------|--|-------------------------------|--|--|
| EXAP89 SM3 | MCU PETER: “I- I’m sorry about that, sir, I mean...” | 02.03.28- 02.03.30 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, when Dr. Strange suddenly returned with his portal, he approached Peter and said that he had been dangling over the Grand Canyon for twelve hours because of Peter. Peter apologized to Strange for his actions. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Peter expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for trapping Strange hanging above the Grand Canyon. |
| EXAP90 SM3 | EDDIE BROCK: “Alright, tell me again, I’m sorry. I’m an idiot. There was a billionaire, he had a tin suit, and he could fly, right?” | 02.27.19- 02.27.26 | An Expression of an Apology | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Eddie Brock says that the people here are superhuman. Venom realizes that Eddie has been saying that for hours. Eddie, realizing his mistake, apologized and said that he was an idiot for taking so long to understand. This utterance is classified as an Expression of an Apology because Eddie expresses his apology directly when he feels guilty for taking so long to understand something that causes Venom to complain. |

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY

| Code No | Utterance | Time Frame | Apology Strategies | Explanation |
|--------------|---|-----------------------|----------------------------------|---|
| RESP1 SM1 | PETER PARKER: "I lost the Stark internship" | 01.22.52- 01.22.54 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, May knew that Peter missed a lot of school activities and even snuck out at night. Peter told her that he had lost his internship at Stark. He explains that he messed things up. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. Peter explains the situation where he lost his apprenticeship at Stark. |
| RESP2 SM1 | PETER PARKER: "I understand. I just wanted to be like you." | 01.21.32- 01.21.34 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Peter argued with Tony about how Peter acted alone in the face of danger and evil out there. Peter finally realized his mistake, and he said that he just wanted to be like Tony Stark or Iron Man. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------------|----------------------------------|--|
| | | | | an indirect way to apologize. Peter explained that the reason he worked alone and was passionate about saving people was that he just wanted to be like Stark. |
| RESP3 SM2 | SPIDER-MAN: “No, wait, I didn't... Oh, man.” | 01.16.10- 01.06.12 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Spider-Man had just arrived in Berlin on a train. He exited the station wearing his black costume, known by his new name, Night Monkey. He asked one of the people where Nick Fury was, but the person screamed and was frightened to see Night Monkey. Peter didn't mean to scare or frighten her. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP4 SM2 | BRAD DAVIS: “No, no, no, it wasn't like that. It was- uh, I was trying to take a” | 01.30.23- 01.30.26 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Brad suddenly started talking about how crazy it was. MJ overheard saying that Peter wasn't here, to tell the truth, and asking about Brad |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------|---|--|
| | | | | who took a picture of someone in the bathroom. Brad was immediately evasive and said that it's not what people think with negative connotations. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Brad explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP5 SM3 | SPIDER-MAN: "No, I... I didn't..." | 02.35- 02.36 | Acknowledg ment of Responsibilit y | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Mysterio's video statement about Spider-Man's identity shocked the entire community. Spider-Man, who at that time was in the middle of the city along with MJ, was mobbed by people. People asked if it was true that he killed Mysterio. Spider-Man did not admit this. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP6 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "(To MJ) Thank you. | 05.00- 05.03 | Acknowledg ment of Responsibilit | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Happy accidentally |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------|----------------------------------|--|
| | (To Happy) I didn't know you guys broke up. I thought you were in love, May” | | y | caught Peter and MJ in Peter's apartment room. At that moment, Peter found out about Happy and May's relationship. Peter apologized to Happy because he just found out that Happy and MJ had broken up. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP7 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “I didn't kill Quentin Beck. The drones did.” | 06.59- 07.01 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter was interrogated by Agent Clearly. Peter answers the main question of the interrogation, which is about the death of Quentin Beck or Mysterio. Peter said that he did not kill Quentin Beck. The drone that killed. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP8 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “This | 23.32- 23.38 | Acknowledgment of | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------|----------------------------------|---|
| | is so not fair. I mean, this is so not fair. I didn't do anything wrong. And you guys definitely didn't do anything wrong." | | Responsibility | Peter. Ned and MJ agreed to open the university's admission decision letter. Upon opening the letter, it turns out that they were all not accepted as a result of the incident that killed Quentin Beck or Mysterio. Peter did not accept; he said that he had not done anything wrong, and neither had Ned or MJ. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP9 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "It's actually my fault that you're here." | 52.39- 52.40 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter senses with his tingle that there is the presence of another force. Peter approached the origin of the blue flash he saw. That's when Peter met Flint Marko and Max Dillon. Peter honestly said that it was his fault they were here. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|----------------------------------|---|
| | | | | an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP10 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “Okay. I feel kinda bad using Happy's place like this.” | 01.11.08- 01.11.10 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter brought all the villains from the Spider-Man universe to Happy's apartment for security reasons. Peter felt bad for using Happy's apartment to hide them without permission. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP11 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “This is all my fault, May.” | 01.25.58- 01.25.59 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, after a fight with some criminals in Happy's apartment. May and Peter stood together in the ruins. Peter realized that all the damage that had been done was his fault. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP12 | PETER | 01.26.01- | Acknowledgment | In the movie Spider- |

| | | | | |
|---------------|--|-----------------------|----------------------------------|---|
| SM3 | PARKER: “I should’ve just listened to Strange and let him send them back...” | 01.26.03 | ment of Responsibility | Man No Way Home, after the incident at Happy's apartment, Peter realized his mistake. He should have listened to Strange to send all the villains back to their universe. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP13 SM3 | MCU PETER: “She’s gone... and it’s all my fault. She died for nothing. So I’m gonna do what I should’ve done in the first place.” | 01.38.44- 01.39.01 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, May died because of the incident at Happy's apartment. Peter said that May's death was his fault. Peter will do what he should have done from the beginning so that May didn't die for nothing. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as MCU Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP14 SM3 | RAIMI PETER: “My Uncle Ben was killed. It was my fault.” | 01.39.46- 01.39.51 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, after Peter told her that his aunt May had died |

| | | | | |
|-----------|---|-------------------|----------------------------------|---|
| | | | | that night, Raimi Peter tried to calm Peter down. He said that he too felt the loss, he lost his uncle Ben, and it was his fault. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as Raimi Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |
| RESP15SM3 | MCU PETER: "Truth is... that this is all my fault. I accidentally brought those dangerous people here." | 01.47.33-01.47.40 | Acknowledgment of Responsibility | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter broadcasts via webcam to inform the public. Peter admitted his mistake, saying that he was the one who brought various bad guys to his university. This utterance is classified as Acknowledgment of Responsibility as MCU Peter explains the situation that led to the offense as an indirect way to apologize. |

AN EXPLANATION OR ACCOUNT

| Code No | Utterance | Time Frame | Apology Strategies | Explanation |
|----------|---|-------------------|---------------------------|---|
| EXPL1SM1 | PETER PARKER: "Well, yeah, but I... I | 01.55.23-01.55.28 | An Explanation or Account | In the Spider-Man Homecoming movie, Peter approaches Liz at |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------|---------------------------------|--|
| | mean, your dad... I can't imagine what you're going through. If there's anything I can do to help..." | | | school to apologize. She reminds him that he says sorry often without elaborating on what for. Peter found it difficult to explain that he was indirectly apologizing for his treatment of Liz's father. Peter also said he would help Liz if there was anything he could do. This utterance is classified as An Explanation or Account as Peter explains the situation that caused him to commit the offense. |
| EXPL2 SM2 | HAPPY HOGAN: "Ee, e, u... Anyway, the reason I'm late is because this was misplaced at the office. Can you believe it? Because it's enormous. Not the amount, the size. The amount's nice too. They're generous. Pepper Potts said, sorry she couldn't be here." | 07.19- 07.30 | An Explanation or Account | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Happy seems flustered as he tries to explain why he was delayed, mentioning something large was misplaced at his office. He references the item and an accompanying gift as coming from Pepper Potts, who was unable to attend. May clues into Happy's odd behavior and excuses herself to the kitchen. This utterance is classified as An Explanation or Account as Happy explains the situation that caused him to commit the |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------|---------------------------------|---|
| | | | | offense. |
| EXPL3 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “This isn’t what it looks like, Happy!” | 04.43- 04.44 | An Explanation or Account | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter and MJ are seen sharing an intimate romantic moment that is unexpectedly interrupted by Happy. Peter was in the process of removing his Spider-Man costume when Happy caught them. Both Peter and MJ looked shocked and embarrassed to be caught in the act. As Happy turns away in a hurry with her eyes closed. Peter tries to explain that the situation is not as horrendous as it seems. This utterance is classified as An Explanation or Account as Happy explains the situation that caused him to commit the offense. |
| EXPL4 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “This isn’t... it’s not about | 27.11- 27.23 | An Explanation or Account | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter wants Strange to |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------------|---------------------------------|--|
| | me. I mean, this is really hurting a lot of people. My... my Aunt May, Happy... My best friend, my girlfriend, their futures are ruined just because they know me, and... they've done nothing wrong." | | | turn back time so that the incident where everyone finds out that he is Spider-Man will never happen. Peter is selfish about it, he explains why he wants that. This utterance is classified as An Explanation or Account as Peter explains the situation that caused him to commit the offense. |
| EXPL5 SM3 | PETER PARKER: "I know we're in this together, Ned, but I can't do this if I know that you're in danger. Okay? So for me, MJ, please just take this. Please." | 01.09.15- 01.09.26 | An Explanation or Account | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter Parker is preparing to embark on some kind of dangerous mission. His friends MJ and Ned want to accompany and support him, stating they are all involved together. However, Peter refuses, expressing his concern that their safety could be at risk if they come. This utterance is classified as An Explanation or Account as Peter explains the situation that caused him to commit the offense. |

AN OFFER OF REPAIR

| Code No | Utterance | Time Frame | Apology Strategies | Explanation |
|--------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------|---|
| REPR1 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “I didn't mean that. If you go ahead, I'll go grab us a pair.” | 48.44- 48.48 | An Offer of Repair | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, MJ offers Peter to sit next to her in the theater using 3D glasses. Peter accidentally rejects MJ due to communicating with the earpiece connected to Fury. Peter wanted to clear up his misunderstanding with MJ by offering MJ to get the 3D glasses and would soon sit next to her. This utterance is classified as An Offer of Repair as Peter makes an offer to damage caused by his offense. |
| REPR2 SM2 | PETER PARKER: “Look, I have to call Mr. Fury and tell him that Beck's a fraud but I think he tapped my phone.” PETER PARKER: “I need my suit, and I have to go to Berlin and talk to Mr. Fury in person.” | 01.13.57- 01.14.09 | An Offer of Repair | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Peter finally hands EDITH over to Beck. He transfers control of EDITH to Beck. After EDITH's handover, it turns out Peter is being targeted by Beck. Peter was stalked and even sent a drone to kill him. Peter panicked and couldn't stop thinking, especially after finding out that his phone was tapped. This utterance |

| | | | | |
|--------------|---|-----------------------|--------------------|---|
| | | | | is classified as An Offer of Repair as Peter makes an offer to damage caused by his offense. |
| REPR3 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “I know this is my mess, and I swear to you that I'll fix it. but I'mma need some help” | 43.32- 43.36 | An Offer of Repair | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter has caused some sort of problem or “mess” that Strange is now helping him to solve. Strange tells Peter to send him information about the problem immediately so that he can deal with it. However, as Strange turns to leave, Peter stops him and admits that this problem is his own, but he needs help to solve it. This utterance is classified as An Offer of Repair as Peter makes an offer to damage caused by his offense. |
| REPR4 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “I promise I'll fix this” | 02.03.39- 02.03.41 | An Offer of Repair | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, Peter must let MJ and Neds and everyone who has known him forget who he is. MJ and Neds who know that are very worried, they are afraid that Peter will fail to make them remember him again. Peter assures them that he will fix |

| | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|---|
| | | | | that. This utterance is classified as An Offer of Repair as Peter makes an offer to damage caused by his offense. |
|--|--|--|--|---|

A PROMISE OF NON-RECURRENCE

| Code No | Utterance | Time Frame | Apology Strategies | Explanation |
|--------------|--|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| RECU1 SM2 | MJ: “Yeah. Yeah, I'm okay. Let's just... never, never doing that again. I'm never doing that again. ” | 01.57.54- 01.58.00 | A Promise of Non-Recurrence | In the Spider-Man Far From Home movie, Spider-Man goes on a date with MJ. When he arrived to meet MJ, Spider-Man invited MJ to swing together using a spider web. They swing together through the city, with MJ scared and asking Peter to put her down. This utterance is classified as A Promise of Non-Recurrence as MJ promises not to repeat the same mistake. |
| RECU2 SM3 | PETER PARKER: “It's okay... I'm gonna come and find you, and I'll explain everything. I'll make you remember me. It'll be like none of this ever happened. | 02.13.19- 02.13.31 | A Promise of Non-Recurrence | In the movie Spider-Man No Way Home, when Dr. Strange is about to cast a spell so that everyone forgets the events and figures that existed at that time, Peter is honest by saying that MJ will forget who she is. This |

| | | | | |
|--|---------------|--|--|---|
| | Okay?" | | | makes MJ and Ned confused. But Peter calms them down that he will make MJ and Ned remember him and claims that it will be like nothing happened. This utterance is classified as A Promise of Non-Recurrence as Peter promises MJ and Neds not to repeat the same mistake. Peter promises to find them, explain everything, and remind them who Peter was. |
|--|---------------|--|--|---|