

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

This chapter concludes the conclusions and suggestions. After analysing social conflict in Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence, the writer makes the following conclusions and suggestions:

5.1. Conclusion

Based on the analysis of data on social conflict in Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence in the discussion, the study concluded that the types and effects of social conflict occur in the novel as follows:

1). The study found three types of social conflict used in Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence. Types of social conflict include eight conflicts involving social roles, four conflicts involving social positions, and two conflicts of interest. From the results of research from an explanation of the types of social conflict, the writer concluded that the total number of citations from Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence totaled fourteen quotes.

2). The study found three effects of social conflict used in Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence. Social Conflict creates anger and hatred towards other individuals. There are two Violence, three Anger and four Murder. From the results of research from an explanation of the effects of social conflict, the writer concluded that the total number of citations from Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence totaled nine quotes.

Based on the results of the study, the social conflict in Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence has gained dominating evidence, namely social conflict with a type of role conflict and the effect of social conflict, namely Murder. In explaining the types of social conflict, the researcher concluded that in the type of social conflict that dominated was role conflict. The writer finds many characters in novels that have social conflicts with co-workers or characters who have similar social status. While for the effects of social conflict, the writer concluded that in Linda Castillo's novel Sworn to Silence had the effect of social conflict in Murder. The character of the police in the story has effects that are more dominant. The effects that give rise to cooperation that resolve social conflicts.

5.2. Suggestions

Based on the conclusions above, the writer suggest to:

- 1). The reader should understand the sorts and therefore, the effects around of social conflict within the surroundings of social life. Because of social conflict occur while not having to keep up relationships as others to urge sensible in society.
- 2). The students particularly for the Department of English language, and Literature students have to be compelled to learn additional regarding social science, as a result it's the essential introduction to communicate in relevancy humans.
- 3). The lecturers should offer the scholars with expertise and information regarding social conflict, particularly novel in learning literary works. Therefore, the reader notice and perceive however necessary the sorts. Therefore, the effects of social conflict is in social life.