The incident experienced by Amanda's family makes Kate feel that the incident is the same as what she felt sixteen years ago.

Busyness is felt when Mona got the order to continue to provide information about the whereabouts of suspects and murder cases with various programs established by the government and the police. Kate gives Mona the confidence to continue to find out about all those who are suspected of being suspects and their lives. Kate continues to remember the events that she has experienced when she was young. Kate visited her brother's house named Jacob. He worked as a farmer in the straw fields he had worked with his father since sixteen years ago. With great worry, Kate told that there are victims who died in Jacob's field. She tries to recall what happened when the same murder case occurred when Jacob and Kate is young. Jacob suspects this to a man from outside the Painters Mill named Daniel Lapp. Daniel Lapp is a farm worker who has worked with Kate's family sixteen years ago. Lapp had a very nasty character to Kate when she is young. Kate wanted to be driven to a place suspected of being a Lapp hideout. Other police members such as TJ and Glock are looking for strong evidence to the man named Spencer who is suspected of being the last man with Amanda. The results of the interrogation point to a place that has something to do with the DNA results from Glock and the place Spencer and Amanda have visited. The police share the task by going to a particular shop. An experienced police detective has a big problem when he is exposed to a drug case. John Tomasetti is a regretful person and decides to leave BCI, which has a police officer in charge of investigating difficult cases.

Kate and other police officers held a press conference with the community and chairpersons of a particular organization. The results of the investigation and evidence that is discovered and carries out by the police Painters Mill became a press conference at a school. Tomasetti's co-worker Denny tried to return Tomasetti to BCI with the statement that Tomasetti was a great person in investigating cases. The serial murder case became Kate's main job when Kate and Jacob became people who has known the case sixteen years ago. It is in a hay warehouse where Daniel Lapp had shot and hidden in the warehouse. They find out whether Lapp is alive or not. When they does not find Lapp in the warehouse, Jacob and Kate felt guilty about what had happened sixteen years ago. The conflict caused by Daniel Lapp make Kate's life even more frightening until Kate became a police officer. With everything that happened, Kate find out whether the killer who killed Amanda is Lapp or Lapp has die. Then Kate headed to the Lapp family's house and met Lapp's brother. Kate confidently asked a lot about Lapp's whereabouts and continued to find out about the murder case by using a program from the internet in terms of crime. Big problems become things that must be solved by asking for help from other parties such as city officials. Kate meets with the mayor of Painters Mill to tell how the process and evidence of a murder case in the town of Painters Mill. After everything is over, Sarah is Kate's sister reporting a suspicious person in front of Sarah's house. Sarah is scares and guesses that the person who surrounded Sarah's house is Lapp. The incident is examined and investigated by Kate. After a while, the man named Scott Brower is suspected of being Amanda's murder suspect because he is where Amanda is kill or when the incident occurs. He is a very rude person and tries to fight Kate and Glock when they want to interrogate

Scott. Finally, Scott gave up and is taken by Glock to be examined at the police station.

There are two students named Ronnie and Jess. They planned something not to go to school so they could date and go to the hotel. They ignored their parents and decided to leave home to be able to date at the hotel. However, when they are at the hotel, Ronnie and Jess are surprised to see the bodies of women in the hotel, after which they called the police to examine and investigate the victims. The case is even more difficult until the police named Detrick comes to help Glock in examining the body of the woman. Then Kate meet with Tomasetti who found another job that is to help find the whereabouts of the suspect. Tomasetti, Kate, and other police members held a press conference at a school in the Mill Painters. With new victims, Doc explained that the new victim has the same scars and signs of rape as Amanda. Suspects use electric weapons to kill the victims cruelly. With a lot of evidence, then the press conference began with the officials who came. The results of the investigation and discovery of new victims are delivered at a press conference and guests who arrives at six o'clock in the evening.

When the press conference went on, came two people named Ezra and Bonnie reported to Kate that their sisters named Ellen had disappeared when she went to Ruth house. Tomasetti and Kate then searched to find the whereabouts of Ellen who is kidnapped by a murder suspect allegedly. When the cow is find in the hotel is identified, it turned out that the murder victim is named Ellen who has kidnapped by the suspect. Tomasetti's success in finding Ellen make Kate want to work again with Tomasetti in finding murder suspects. Kate kepp asking about Tomasetti's background to his family. Kate and Tomasetti's closeness make them even more convinced to find murder suspects at the Painters Mill. A surprising thing happened when there is paper containing mysterious information. Fill the paper asking Kate to go to a place where Amanda is kill. When Kate arrived there, suddenly a group of people unknown attacks Kate until Kate fell and injured. The police until Tomasetti continued to work harder looking for clues from every action taken by the suspect. The police arrested the man suspected of being a Slaughterhouse gang, the name of a suspected serial killer. Police in a small house arrest the man named Lawney Starkey. He is interrogated by the police to find clues and admitted that he is the murder suspect, but he does not acknowledge and knew nothing about the murder and beatings of Kate. In a school where there are small children who want to go home, suddenly an ice truck containing the body of a woman shocks the child. Pete and Louis who knew about this then reported to Kate who is at the bar with Tomasetti. Pete and other members examined the murder victim. The victim does not have internal organs; the incident made Kate and the other police curious and tried to teach the perpetrator who allegedly used a Yamaha-branded snowmobile vehicle. After being examined, the victim named Belinda is Sheriff Norm's daughter. Norm and his wife are very sad and blamed the incident on Kate. Norm as an indecisive and unprofessional police officer judges Kate. The conflict between Norm and Kate make Kate very sorry.

Then Kate went to Sarah's house to ask again about the whereabouts of Daniel Lapp who is suspect of being a murder suspect. Kate asks to Sarah about Lapp, because Sarah who see Daniel Lapp's process brought by his father to a hole in the hay barn. After that, Kate immediately rushed to the hole to find out the whereabouts of Lapp. With fear, Kate hopes Daniel Lapp is die and not kill Amanda, belinda and others. Kate is afraid if Lapp still alive and everything is revealed because Kate had killed Lapp sixteen years ago. When Kate arrived in a dark, cable-filled room, Tomasetti suddenly appeared and shocked Kate. Kate tried to hide Lapp so that the culture of the Amish who is closed and not modern damaged due to Kate's actions that killed Lapp. Kate shot Daniel Lapp who made conflicts in Kate's family when she was still a child. Tomasetti tried to keep asking about the incident sixteen years ago. Kate believes that when she was still a child, Lapp is killed by a shot from her father's shotgun. For the incident, Kate's family from the Amish tribe who is known for its non-chaotic nature felt guilty for Kate's actions. That way, Kate's family tried to hide Lapp's corpse in a hole. News about Lapp's death and disappearance is not published because Kate's family was afraid of violating the Amish culture, because Lapp came from Amish too. After the incident, there were no more murder cases for the next sixteen years. Kate is also very sure that Lapp is still alive with the existence of traces of violence and rape that were similar to those suffered by Amanda and other victims. Kate thinks that Lapp survives and in the case of Amanda, it is not because of Lapp, but someone else who has a weapon while Lapp does not have a weapon. Kate also thinks that she killed the wrong man because it can be seen from the former rape that is different from Lapp when he raped Kate. This ensures that the murder that occurred to Amanda is not Lapp but is another suspect using a weapon. Kate is convinced that the serial killer that happened was not because of Lapp, but there is another person who tried to make a social conflict in the Amish tribe. Then Kate and Tomasetti continued to look for evidence of events carried out by Lapp in the previous year. However, Janine and Auggie get assault from serial killer/slaughterhouse. Kate has gone awry because Janine thinks that Kate is not a firm and professional police chief. This make Kate feel guilty and regretted all the conflicts that occurred between the police in her life.

When Kate returned to the house with great remorse, she begin looking for murder cases that occurred in the previous year. She wanted to find a murder case similar to what is experienced by Amanda with rape scars. When Kate looked for a case on the web, Mona and Detrick reported that they are found a lot of blood in a farmhouse belonging to Jonas Heusbeger who was an Amish citizen. When Kate and another police officer checked the blood, it turned out that blood is found in the type of O blood that is the same as Amanda's. Kate tries to calm down and is sure that Jonas is not the serial killer. For these difficult events, Kate and Tomasetti talked about their interesting past. Tomasetti told all about his family that they are killed because they are killed and burned by a sadistic group called Vespian. Tomasetti is very angry and make a big conflict with Vespian's group. After the incident Kate is convinced that evil people are numerous and unpredictable. For the case of blood at Jonas' residence, Kate then interrogated Jonas about the blood. However, Kate still believes that he is not a killer because Jonas is a good person when Kate was a child. VICAP is a police site that can find out about a crime that occurred a few years ago. After finding the case that occurred last year, there is a very suspicious person, Sheriff Detrick, who has the same characteristics as the killer in the previous year. After finding these traits, Kate rushed to Jonas's house to see what Detrick is doing. Jonas who has incited to commit suicide by Detrick cancelled the action. Detrick's crime is discovers when Jonas explained that Detrick has acted harshly on Jonas. Detrick blames Kate by slandering that Kate is not a great cop and only likes to get drunk. Kate is in great danger until she is kidnapped by Detrick to a remote house. With Kate's intelligence, she can tell Tomasetti that Detrick is a murder suspect with a lot of evidence in a hiding house.

Mona and Glock informed Tomasetti that Kate has kidnapped by the cruel Detrick. tomasetti then rushed to find Kate by going to Detrick's house. However, Tomasetti does not find Detrick at a Detrick's house. Tomasetti entered the house and saw some surprising evidence and facts in the form of accessories belonging to the victim and many clothes, it is clear that Detrick is the murderer who killed Amanda and others. Detrick who is very cruel and continued to slander Kate, she is hit with a blow to the threat of being killed by Detrick. However, not long after, Tomasetti came and immediately shot Detrick and called Glock to help Tomasetti. Detrick is hit by a gunshot which made it difficult for him to walk and finally he is taken for questioning. Kate's courage and honesty make all of her friends feel proud and apologize for all the accusations that are not good for Kate. Tomasetti feels proud of Kate's courage and intelligence because she managed to find out the serial killers who makes social conflicts at Painters Mill.
