

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

In this chapter the writer will conclude all of the chapter that Ghauri conflict through her life. Ghauri is a princess of Bharata from result of the analysis thus study shows that conflict can occur to anyone, and at any age. Conflict is a condition when people struggle with something

The writer wants to show that conflict can't be underestimated. A person who has a conflict sometimes needs another person to solve their problem. Conflict that is not solved properly can make a worse situation.

Because there are many problems and conflicts in daily life, the writer conducted research on conflict in a novel. In this study, the writer wants to show that the role of social and relationship is an important environment in life. In Ghauri's life, she was sent as a prisoner by her brother Skanda. She is treated with harshness and rudeness in the jail. It makes Ghauri have a conflict with the attendant and the guardian. She wants to escape from the jail and come back to the Bharata to save her friend, Nalini. She ended with accepting an offer from the prince of Ujjain, Vikram. He offers her freedom if she wants to join a tournament. This is a magical tournament with death as the consequence and wish as the present. Ghauri faces two trials and one sacrifice. The first trial is she must find two keys of immortality. The game is to make Ghauri become a better person. Because this game makes contestants accept their desires and fears. This is two kinds of problems that humans always suffer from: fear and desire. Fear makes people always have a negative feeling and desire makes people become greedy, always wanting more and more.

This thesis explains the type of Ghauri's conflict in Roshani Chokshi's A Crown of Wishes. There are two kinds of conflict that the writer applies in this thesis. The first is internal conflict, which means a conflict that happens inside of the character of Ghauri. It describes what motives for Ghauri to have an internal conflict and how she solves her conflict. Ghauri always wants to take the throne from Skanda. She claims that she does it to save her friend and the people. But with all of the time she passed in the tournament, she realized that she did all the things because she followed her desire and fear. She ended her conflict with herself by winning the tournament of wishes. She threw away all her desires and fears. An external conflict is a problem that faces Ghauri with other characters. What makes a problem between them and how she solves her conflict. Ghauri's conflict with her brother Skanda. Skanda wants to kill her by sending her to Ujjain. But she solves their conflict. She never does the same thing with Skanda. She forgives him with doesn't kill him but she erases her name from history of their kingdom.

In this thesis it can be concluded that conflict can occur in anyone and have a impact if can't be handled properly and correctly. In this study it can be found that Ghauri has a conflict with herself and her social. She fights over her brother Skanda and she has to deal with Vikram and Kuvera to finish the tournament of wishes. In this thesis it can be found that the causes of Ghauri's conflict are her desire and fear. These things always make Ghauri have a negative thinking and feel insecure.

Every person always has a conflict. We should always face it never run away from it. Conflict makes life more challenging and becomes a strong person. Conflict is the common thing that can make humans change their fate and destiny.
